Declarations on Formation of a Community Interest Company

Company Name in full	Olive Art Foundation C.I.C.
	Community Interest Company

SECTION A: COMMUNITY INTEREST STATEMENT – beneficiaries

1. We/I, the undersigned, declare that the company will carry on its activities for the benefit of the community, or a section of the community.

The Company's activities will provide benefit to children and young people, adults, older people, families, artists, volunteers and communities, particularly those who face barriers to accessing creativity because of financial hardship, disability, poor mental health, loneliness, social isolation or other disadvantage. The Company will benefit communities through its activities wherever it operates.

COMPANY NAME	Olive Art Foundation C.I.C.

SECTION B: Community Interest Statement – Activities & Related Benefit

Please indicate how it is proposed that the company's activities will benefit the community, or a section of the community.

Activities	How will the activity benefit the community?
Creative workshops, education, training, arts programmes, creative experiences and cultural activities.	Increase access to creativity, develop skills, improve confidence, support wellbeing, encourage lifelong learning and increase participation in the arts.
Community arts projects, exhibitions, events, volunteering, creative resource initiatives (including reuse and scrap stores), partnerships, community spaces, artist development, commissions and creative enterprise initiatives.	Reduce isolation, improve wellbeing, remove financial barriers to creativity, promote environmental sustainability through creative reuse, strengthen communities, support artists, volunteers and creative businesses, and create opportunities for people of all ages and backgrounds to connect through creativity.
If the Company makes any surplus, it will be used solely to further the Company's community benefit activities and objects by expanding and improving its programmes, developing new projects, supporting beneficiaries, improving resources and facilities, investing in staff and volunteers, promoting creativity, education and wellbeing, and ensuring the long term sustainability of the Company. Any residual assets remaining on the winding up of the Company will be transferred to the nominated asset-locked body in accordance with the Articles of Association.
